

Raising Girls, a program of Girls Actively Participating!, and the Jackson Hole Children's Museum is proud to offer a unique opportunity for parents and their 3rd or 4th grade daughter.

It is easy to feel overwhelmed by your daughter's social world. The stories she comes home with about her friends can sometimes leave parents overwhelmed or at a loss on how to help.

Details:

Sundays, January 31 & February 7

1pm – 4pm

Jackson Hole Children's Museum

Cost: $80 (includes 2 participants, 2 days, and snacks!)

Must be able to fully attend!

This workshop offers you and your 3rd/4th grade daughter fun, yet empowering time together while learning about relationships in her world.

Registration closes January 20. Call JHCM: 307-733-3996

For more information, email Jess: gapgirljh@gmail.com

Facilitation by Jess Yeomans, Executive Director of GAP!, trained at Girls Leadership Institute.

